3 Ways to Create a Trust Fund - wikiHow

You can have an estate attorney draw up the trust document or you can do it on your own. After you write the document, it must be signed in front of a notary. 2. File the document with the state if you are required to do so. Some states require you to file trust documents with the state so there is a legal record of it. An attorney can advise you about whether or not this is necessary and how
